1. Why did ASN decide to transition from an in-person meeting to a digital meeting?

The ASN Council, City of Denver, and State of Colorado agreed that it is in the best interests of all involved not to hold Kidney Week in-person this fall.

2. What are the dates of Kidney Week Reimagined?

- October 19-21, 2020 for Early Programs – live-streamed and on-demand content.
- October 22-25, 2020 for the Annual Meeting – simulive, live-streamed, and on-demand sessions; posters; and exhibits.
- All meeting content will be available on the Kidney Week Reimagined website until December 4, 2020.

3. What is the time zone of Kidney Week Reimagined?

The simulive and live-streamed educational content will be scheduled between 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) in the United States. All content will be recorded and made available on-demand within one hour.

4. What does Kidney Week Reimagined include?

- Registration for an Early Program \(October 19-21\) includes interactive, live sessions daily and access to all recorded presentations for that program for up to three years.
- Registration for the Annual Meeting \(October 22-25\) includes plenaries, 100+ sessions (simulive, live-streamed, and on-demand), posters, exhibits, networking, and more.
All meeting content will be available on the Kidney Week Reimagined website until December 4, 2020. In January 2021, this content will move to the ASN Learning Center for up to three years and continue to be complimentary to meeting participants who obtain an access code. Access code information will be available in October.

7. How will I access Kidney Week Reimagined?

ASN will host a dedicated website for Kidney Week Reimagined. You will need to register for the meeting and log in with your ASN account. ASN will provide detailed instructions closer to the meeting.

8. How will the Kidney Week Reimagined presentations be delivered?

Some educational sessions will be live-streamed, others will be pre-recorded with live chat/Q&A with faculty (i.e., simulative), and others will be pre-recorded and available on-demand. The live-streamed and simulative sessions will be recorded and made available on-demand within one day.

9. How long will I have access to the recorded content?

All meeting content will be available on the Kidney Week Reimagined website until December 4, 2020. In January 2021, this content will move to the ASN Learning Center for up to three years and continue to be complimentary to meeting participants who obtain an access code. Access code information will be available in October.

Abstracts

10. I submitted an abstract by the June 1 deadline. When will I receive the decision notification?

August 14, 2020.

11. Will ASN offer additional opportunities to submit abstracts?

The call for late-breaking clinical trials opened on July 15, 2020, and closed on September 2, 2020.

12. How will posters be viewed, presented, etc.?

Thousands of ePosters can be viewed on-demand starting October 22 at 10:00 a.m. EDT.

ePoster features include:

- Interactive interface to browse through uploaded posters
- Keyword search and multiple indices to quickly find uploaded posters
- Various communication tools (with Kidney Week login)

Exhibits/Support/Advertising Opportunities

13. Will there be an exhibit hall?

Yes, ASN is planning a robust, digital exhibit hall. Please see the Exhibitor Prospectus for more information.

14. When will pricing and details for the digital exhibit hall be available?

SPARGO, Inc. (ASN's exhibit sales partner) contacted all existing exhibitors with details on exhibits in late July. Click here for additional details and contact information.

15. My institution/company is interested in exhibiting. Who should I contact?

Ronny Coombs, ASN Meetings and Exhibits Coordinator, rcoombs@asn-online.org.

16. My company is interested in supporting and/or sponsoring Kidney Week.

Who should I contact?

Click here for the Digital Corporate Support Catalog. Please contact Kara Page, ASN Vice President for Business Development, at kpage@asn-online.org with any questions.

17. My company is interested in advertising in ASN's newsmagazine, Kidney News, which will be mailed to participants in advance of the meeting. Who should I contact?

Kelley Russell, National Sales Manager, The Walchli Tauber Group, Kelley.Russell@wt-group.com.

Other

18. Will there be continuing education credits (CME/CNE/CPE) and maintenance of certification (MOC) points for Kidney Week Reimagined? How many credits/points?

Yes. Annual Meeting participants can claim up to 75 continuing education (CE) credits and ABIM MOC points. For Early Programs, CE credits vary from program to program, and MOC points are not offered.

19. How can I get my Certificate of Attendance?

Please check back in October for more details.

20. Are there opportunities for ancillary events at Kidney Week Reimagined?

Due to the digital delivery of this year's meeting, ASN will not provide a platform for hosting non-ASN virtual/digital events, and therefore ASN will not have an application process for ancillary events. All logistics and arrangements must be made by the organizer. ASN will not post, publicize, or endorse any non-ASN virtual/digital events this year. Please contact meetings@asn-online.org with any questions.
