

Board Certification Information (ASN, May 2015)

Certifying Board	American Board of Internal Medicine	American Board of Physician Specialists	American Osteopathic Board of Internal Medicine	National Board of Physicians and Surgeons
Website	www.abim.org	www.abpsus.org	www.aobim.org	www.nbpas.org
	510 Walnut Street, Ste. 1700 Philadelphia, PA 19106	5550 West Executive Drive, Ste. 400 Tampa, FL 33609	11400 Rockville Pike, Ste. 801 Rockville, MD 20852 Subspecialty: Attn: Gary L. Slick, DO 1111 W. 17th Street Tulsa, OK 74107	No address available.
Initial Certification-Internal Medicine	10 year period Requirements: - predoctoral medical education (graduated medical school). - graduate medical education (36 calendar months in ACGME, RCPS, Prof. Corp of Physicians [Quebec] residency). - clinical competence (Fas Track). - program director ratings of clinical competence.	8 year period Requirements: - undergraduate college degree. - four years of medical school. - substantial, identifiable training such as a three- to five-year residency in an ACGME accredited program and several years of experience and proven competencies in the specialty or sub-specialty. - a license to practice medicine. - successful completion of the written examination.	10 year period Requirements: - satisfactory completion of internal medicine residency training. - approval of formal application. - successful performance on a comprehensive one-day examination.	N/A
Recertification-Internal Medicine	Continuous Maintenance of Certification Requirements: - possess valid, unrestricted license to practice medicine. - enroll in MOC. - earn MOC points - 100 points every 5 years. - pass MOC examination.	8 year period Requirements: - documentation of the required number of CME hours. - completion of the recertification application. - successful completion of the written recertification examination.	Osteopathic Continuous Certification Requirements: Component 1 - unrestricted license. Component 2 - lifelong learning /continuing medical education (120 hours each 3-year cycle-50 hours in specialty area). Component 3 - cognitive assessment (examination). Component 4 - practice performance assessment and improvement (quality improvement compare personal practice against national standards). Component 5 - continuous AOA membership (in good standing).	2 year period Requirements: - previous certification by an ABMS member board. - valid, unrestricted license to practice medicine. - at least 50 hours of ACCME accredited CME related to specialty within the past 24 months (physicians-in- training are exempt). - for selected specialties, active hospital privileges in that specialty in US hospital licensed by nationally recognized credentialing organization. - clinical privileges in certifies specialty have not been permanently revoked.
Initial Certification-Nephrology	10 year period Requirements: - previously certified in internal medicine by ABIM. - satisfactorily complete GME fellowship training. - demonstrate clinical competence, procedural skills, and moral and ethical behavior. - program director ratings of clinical competence. - hold valid, unrestricted license to practice medicine. - pass the nephrology certification examination.	N/A	10 year period Requirements: - AOBIM certified in internal medicine. - satisfactory completion of two years of an AOA approved fellowship program in Nephrology. - successful performance on a comprehensive, one-day written/clinical examination.	N/A
Recertification-Nephrology	10 year period Requirements: - DO NOT need to maintain internal medicine certification. - possess valid, unrestricted license to practice medicine. - enroll in MOC. - earn MOC points - 100 points every 5 years. - pass MOC examination.	N/A	10 year period Requirements: - DO NOT need to maintain internal medicine certification. Component 1 - unrestricted license. Component 2 - lifelong learning /continuing medical education (120 hours each 3-year cycle-50 hours in specialty area). Component 3 - cognitive assessment (examination). Component 4 - practice performance assessment and improvement (quality improvement compare personal practice against national standards). Component 5 - continuous AOA membership (in good standing).	2 year period Requirements: - previous certification by an ABMS member board. - valid, unrestricted license to practice medicine. - at least 50 hours of ACCME accredited CME related to specialty within the past 24 months (physicians-in- training are exempt). - for selected specialties, active hospital privileges in that specialty in US hospital licensed by nationally recognized credentialing organization. - clinical privileges in certifies specialty have not been permanently revoked.