REVIEWERS OF THE YEAR: 2021

The ASN Family of Journals recognizes that reviewers are an integral part of the process for peer-reviewed journals and is grateful for your commitment. Each year this “Reviewer of the Year” honor is awarded to only five reviewers per ASN journal. The Kidney360 Reviewers of the Year are:

- Fahad Aziz
- Neetika Garg
- Emily Joachim
- Arnaldo Lopez-Ruiz
- Sandesh Parajuli

Kidney360 is indebted to you for your time and energy and overall contribution to scholarly publishing and the nephrology field.

“Being part of an evolving scientific process is the best part of being a reviewer” – Fahad Aziz

INFOGRAPHICS

We have added a new visual feature to our Clinical Images in Nephrology and Dialysis articles. These infographics capture the teaching points in a format ideal for educational uses. We are grateful to the incredibly talented Edgar Lerma, who creates these for each issue.

WHO IS READING KIDNEY360?

This map shows number of page views by country. We hope to expand this with our Global Perspective Series as well as with the international reach of our Editorial Board.

EDITORIAL TRAINING PROGRAM

This is a mentoring program designed specifically to provide early-career nephrologists and scientists the opportunity to enhance their peer review and editorial skills.

We would like to congratulate the three individuals below who have been selected as our first program participants.

Denisha Spears, PhD
Augusta University, Augusta, GA

Molly C. Fisher, DO
Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Bronx, NY

Miguel Bigotte Vieira, MD
Hospital Curry Cabral, CHULC, Lisbon, Portugal

Happy Holidays and best wishes for the New Year!
